May we and the entire House of Israel be remembered and recorded in the Book of life, blessing, sustenance and peace.

Dear Friends,

Jewish tradition teaches that when a person physically leaves this world, they are still connected to their loved ones, constantly giving them strength and encouragement from worlds beyond our own. They are here with us, but on a different and more spiritual plane.

This feeling is more palpable at special times throughout the year—the Yizkor service being one of them.

When we come together as a community to chant the Yizkor prayers, and when we each remember our respective loved ones individually yet collectively, a special connection is being formed between us and them, between our physical selves and their spiritual existence.

This Book of Life is an expression of how we feel about our loved ones, and of our desire to retain our connection with them. It reminds us to always remember and to never forget. And, most importantly, it's a testament of our bonding as a community by invoking our loved ones in unison.

May the memories of our loved ones always be a source of blessing in our lives.

Warmly,
Rabbi Abe Lebovic

BOOK OF LIFE

Following the practice observed by most congregations, Beth Israel leadership has approved the preparation, in printed form, of the enclosed Memorial Names to be distributed to our worshippers before the High Holy Days and Festival Yizkor services.

It is with the avowed purpose of enhancing our Religious Services that we once again offer this brochure, "The Book of Life." We confidently trust that it will be received kindly in that spirit.

DEDICATION

In memory of all our loved ones
who have been taken from us,
and yet abide in our hearts eternally
in deeds great and marvelous,
this “Book of Life”
is lovingly and reverently dedicated.

Our nearest and dearest are verily immortal
for their names are enshrined in perpetuity
in our beloved Beth Israel Sanctuary,
in God’s house!

Thus they shall be ever remembered
and never forgotten!

May their sacred lives inspire us
to continue to serve with loyal devotion
our people and our faith!

יְיָ מִה־אָדָם וַתִּדְעֶהוּ. בְּרֵאשִׁית וַתִּחְשְׁבֶהוּ:
אָדָם לְהֶבֶל דָּמָה. יָמָיו כְּצֶל עוֹבֵר:
לְמִנּוֹת יָמֵינוּ בֶן הַדּוֹעַ. וְנָבֵא לִבְבְּ חֲכָמָה:
פְּוֹדָה יְיָ נַפְשׁ עַבְדֵּיו. וְלֹא יֵאָשְׁמוּ כָּל־הַחֲסִים בּוֹ:

Lord, what are we humans, that You have regard for us,
Mere mortals, that You take account of us?

We are like a breath,
Our days are like a fleeting shadow.
Teach us to number our days,
That we may attain a heart of wisdom.

The Lord redeems the life of His servants;
And those who trust in Him shall not feel forsaken.

Biblical verses

Eternal God, in whose eyes a thousand years are but as yesterday, in whose hands are the souls of the living and the dead, in Your sight every soul is precious.

O Lord, from whom we come and to whom we return, strengthen us as we now remember our loved ones who have been reunited with You. Be with us as we consecrate this hour to the memory of our departed.

שׁוֹיֵתִי יְיָ לְנִגְדֵי תְמִיד. כִּי מִיְמִינִי בִלְ-אֲמוּט:
לְכֹן שָׁמַח לְבִי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדֵי. אֶפְ-בְּשָׂרִי יִשְׁכֵּן לְבִטָּח:

I have set the Lord before me always,
He is at my right hand; I shall not fail.

Therefore my heart rejoices, my whole being exults,
And my body rests secure.

We remember them

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
we remember them.

*At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

*At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

*At the beginning of the year and at its end,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

*When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.*

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

*When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.*

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

*When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

Sylvan Kamens and Jack Reimer

We recall

Eternal God, we have come to sanctify our fleeting lives by linking them with Yours, O Life of all Ages. In You generations past, present, and future are united as one bond of life.

At this sacred hour, we are aware of those souls through whom we have come to know of Your grace and love. All the wisdom, beauty, and affection that have enriched our lives are the garnered fruits of our communion with others.

Many of those to whom we owe so much are alive with us today; and we pray that we may be able to reward their goodness and their devotion to us by acts of love and loyalty.

But others have passed forever from our midst, leaving us a heritage of tender memories which now fill our minds.

Some of us recall today beloved parents who watched over us, nurtured us, guided us, and sacrificed for us.

Some of us lovingly call to mind a wife or a husband with whom we were truly united – in our hopes and our pains, in our failures and our achievements, in our joys and our sorrows.

Some of us remember brothers and sisters, who grew up together with us, sharing in the play of childhood, in the youthful adventure of discovering life's possibilities, bound to us by a heritage of family tradition and by years of comradeship and love.

Some of us call to mind children, entrusted to our care all too briefly, taken from us before they reached the years of maturity and fulfillment, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust which enriched our lives.

All of us recall beloved relatives and friends whose affection and devotion enhanced our lives, and whose visible presence will never return to cheer, encourage or support us.

Though they are gone from us we are grateful for the blessings they brought to us. Now, by giving to others the love which our departed gave to us, we can partly repay the debt we owe them.

We are sustained and comforted by the thought that the goodness which they brought into our lives remains an enduring blessing which we can bequeath to our descendants.

We can still serve our departed by serving You. We can show our devotion to them by our devotion to those ideals which they cherished.

O God of Love, make us worthy of the love we have received by teaching us to love You with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our might, and to spread the light of Your divine love on all whose lives touch ours.

Give us strength to live honorably and, when our time comes, to die serenely, cheered by the confidence that You will not permit our lives to be wasted, but will bring all our worthy strivings to fulfillment.

Amen.

In memory of departed congregants:

In this memorial hour, we recall members of our congregation who have been taken from us...

Their memories are enshrined in this sanctuary, and are gratefully recorded upon the tablets of our hearts.

May the Source of all comfort send consolation and healing to those who mourn them. May their memories endure among us as a lasting benediction. And let us say: Amen.

YIZKOR – In remembrance of a father:

Blessed and praised, glorified and exalted, extolled and honored, adored and lauded be the name of the Holy One, blessed be He, beyond all the blessings and hymns, praises and consolations that are ever spoken in the world; and say, Amen.

May there be abundant peace from heaven, and a happy life, for us and for all Israel; and say, Amen.

He who creates peace in His celestial heights, may He in His mercy create peace for us and for all Israel; and say, Amen.

PERPETUAL MEMORIALS

In this solemn hour we recall our dear departed whose names have been permanently affixed on our Memorial Tablets. They shall ever be gratefully honored by us and eternally enshrined in our hearts and minds. We pray thee, O God, for the peace of their souls and for comfort to those who mourn their passing. Let us now in silence contemplate their memories, both of those whose names are perpetuated on our Memorial Tablets and the names sent "In Memoriam" for this day of Remembrance.

"May their memory be for a blessing"

IN MEMORY OF DECEASED MEMBERS
OF JEWISH WAR VETERANS

DEDICATED TO PERPETUATE THE MEMORY
OF UNITED STATES WAR VETERANS
OF WORLD WAR I AND WORLD WAR II

A MEMORIAL AND TRIBUTE TO ALL VETERANS WHO HAVE SERVED THEIR COUNTRY

FOR THE INNOCENT AND THE HOLY WHO SUFFERED AND PERISHED AS JEWISH HEROES AND MARTYRS

IN MEMORY OF THOSE WHO DIED
SO THAT ISRAEL MAY LIVE
